Notes for Melissa T Hubbard:

There is a discrepancy in official records as to her birth date. The official death certificate gives her birthdate as 20 April 1900 whereas the Social Security Record and Find-A-Grave list her birthdate as 20 April 1884. The latter date is more likely since she is listed as having a child in the 1910 census. It's unlikely that she had a child at the age of 10.

Notes for John Nathaniel Hubbard:

According to Iverson, he was deformed; his mouth (jaw was twisted) and his leg(s) were deformed Iverson recalls him riding on a horse from the Waller Place over to the Garland school. He courted Letha Hooks (unsure of her last name) and eventually married her. He would ride his horse down to her house on weekends to court her. Iverson recalls riding behind him on a horse to Hooks on the weekend to court her. He stayed there all day with Johnny.

After marrying Letha, he had a house that Iverson's grandfather left him; the house was located over where Harry lived.

He lived with Iverson's Uncle Jim for a time during his early years. During that time, he went to school in Garland.

Iverson recalls that Johnny had a run in with some white guys while on horseback and they were in a wagon and forced him off the road and into the ditch.
